

Do you follow or do you lead?

The Red Synergy

People are our greatest asset!

YOUR ROLE

Our success means we are looking for exceptional candidates to join a growing team. Your responsibilities will include:

- work as the project leader with clients (foreign small and medium enterprises) on investment projects, mainly responsible for evaluating client investment needs, advising on structuring and setting up of legal entities, structuring off shore vehicles, and drafting and negotiating agreements;
- coordinate financial, accountants, and tax advisors involved in the investment projects;
- identify and pursue opportunities for the company development;
- travel in China and Hong Kong according to different projects

Have you ever thought about being the client instead of just a consultant?

WHO YOU ARE

You will have:

- a bachelor degree or above, master degree overseas is preferred;
- at least three years working experience in a legal or business environment with a successful performance record (reference will be required);
- have deep understanding of company registration, structuring national and international deals;
- excellent communication, coordination and negotiation skills both in Mandarin and English;
- innovative, flexible, smart, out-going, careful and dynamic;
- willing to learn, and prove to be a quick-learner;
- willing to travel.

SEND YOUR REPLIES TO

Red Synergy Business Consulting Shanghai

resources@theredsynergy.com